

Eggs

Larvae

Pupae

Aedes mosquito

could you be nurturing a dangerous threat instead?

Dengue fever is spread by Aedes mosquitoes which breed quickly and easily in just a small amount of stagnant water. Take proper measures to make your home a safe haven for your family.

You can prevent mosquito breeding in your home.

Change water in flower vases every other day.

Clean and scrub the inner sides of vases.

Wash roots of flowers and plants thoroughly.